Terms & Conditions

- Visa application process takes 21 days from the date of departure.
- We will only proceed with your visa application once all the supporting travel documents required have been submitted.
- We advise passengers to avoid making non-urgent travel plans until your visa has been approved and your passport has been returned.
- If your visa application is rejected by the Embassy, or if you wish to withdraw your application after your passport has been submitted, no refunds will be given.
- Payment is inclusive of Umrah Takaful ($35). Kindly refer to the insurance details in the Umrah Takaful brochure.

Express Visa Application Service

- An additional fee of $100 is chargeable for passengers who require this service.
- This express service is only applicable to passengers with valid travel documents, to support your appeal for urgent visa application process from the Embassy.
- Please submit your supporting documents – official letter from company, sponsorship letter, flight itinerary etc., together with the additional fee of $100.
- Express visa application will take approximately 14 days, subject to the Embassy's approval.
- Should your express visa application appeal be rejected by the Embassy, all fees are non-refundable.

We will contact you once your application has been approved. Any calls to enquire on the progress of your application or any requests to expedite the process will not be entertained. Thank you for your understanding and kind cooperation.

I understand and agree to the Terms & Conditions stated above.
